Wedding November 2014 – review on Facebook Page

“My new husband and our families would like to convey our sincere appreciation and thanks to all the Old Post house staff for making our wedding a most truly amazing and memorable event. We hired out the whole venue including bedrooms, and were the first to have a marquee on site. Chris, Faye, Alex and the team surpassed our expectations with their combination of personal, flexible and professional service. Everyone commented how fabulous the venue, quality of food and attention to detail was yet still having a relaxed atmosphere. If I were asked to give recommendation for a wedding venue in Cardiff the Old post house St Fagans would be at the top of my list by miles. Thank you so much. We will be back for one of your restaurant events and will be bringing friends and family”

“What a beautiful wedding we have had at your venue. We have such lovely memories and felt at home with the exclusivity. From Checking in Friday night to checking out Sunday morning, we have been very relaxed and you allowed us to fully enjoy our celebrations. Our guests have been extremely complimentary with both the venue and catering. Alex has kept me calm throughout the planning and Faye was on hand all the way through our stay. Best wishes for your forthcoming events”

Wedding March 2016 – review on Facebook Page

“We held our wedding at the Old Post House on 30th April 2016, and couldn't have been happier with how the day turned out. We had multiple meetings with Alex beforehand, who was extremely helpful every step of the way, and had everything completely under control on the day. All of the overnight guests (ourselves included) were very impressed with the standard of the rooms, as well as the range and quality of breakfast available. On the wedding day itself, the entire venue was made up beautifully, particularly the marquee and restaurant, making for some stunning photos! The staff were all very professional, polite, and personable, and the food was excellent. Chris and Faye should be very proud of their venue and the team. All in all, a perfect day!”

Wedding April 2016 – review on TripAdvisor

“The 6th May will always be remembered as a special day for us as we held our wedding reception at the Old Post House which was the perfect venue for us and our guests. It was made all the more special as everything ran so smoothly and every attention to detail was considered. The food was excellent, thank you to Dan (chef) the Merlyn cheesecake was superb.

We had a number of guests with restricted mobility and access to all areas including the guest bedrooms was important for us as both rooms had large sofas. This enabled some of our elderly guests to comfortably take a quiet break during the day away from the celebrations.

The bedrooms were of a very high standard, we chose to book the Cardiff and St Fagans rooms as these are the largest and were fully equipped with everything you expect of a good quality B&B.

I would like to thank Alex for coordinating the day and Faye and Chris for all their hard work, I hope you have continued success with lots of wonderful weddings in the future.....You won't be disappointed if choose to hold your wedding here.”

Wedding May 2016 – review on TripAdvisor

“We recently got married in Cuba so had the party/UK reception here (May 2016). Our vision for the day wasn't really your typical wedding reception but the staff and owners (Alex, Chris, Faye) really went out their way to help us make our party bold, bright and fun. The place is fairly simple and intimate, so easy to add your own stamp. We were able to decorate in advance and Chris even put up special hooks for our garlands, as well as stocking up on our favourite rum and putting up a gazebo for cigar smoking (we had cigars as favours).

We had 36 for the wedding breakfast in the dining area, with 120 evening guests (our total was nearing the recommended maximum capacity but was comfortable). The kitchen staff created us a personalised menu for the sit down meal and evening buffet. All the food was absolutely delicious and the service was impeccable.

The marquee worked well for dancing - we had a salsa lesson and there was plenty of space for most people to come and have a go! People naturally spread themselves out between bar, dining room and dancing.

Alex (events) was so professional and efficient throughout (but friendly and relaxed at the same time). Timing on the day was spot on! Very experienced organising weddings so lots of useful tips.

We thought the venue was really good value, we bought prosecco and wine (daytime) and paid corkage, food reasonably priced as well. We were able to hire the 6 bedrooms for a full weekend meaning close family got to have lots of quality time together. (Bedrooms were all unique, comfortable and clean).

I can't think of any constructive criticism - everything was positive! We had a fabulous day :)”
